
Cell = mean of the category's models' means over 6 cases; small text = lowest-highest model in the category. Categories are defined by response similarity, not by these scores.